

June 2016

LOCAL

4 June 2016

Good News - Broward Edition

Out and About

Making Real Connections Breakfast raises more than $55,000 for 2-1-1 Broward

2-1-1 Broward honored eight of its community partners at the Kip Hunter Marketing "Making REAL Connections"

Breakfast hosted by Signature Grand and presented by Baptist Health South Florida on Friday, May 6. Laurie Sallarulo, President

& CEO of Junior Achievement of South Florida; Dana Somerstein, Associate at Greenspoon Marder, P.A. and CLUB 2-1-1; Member; Mike Keeby, Executive Vice President at Brown & Brown Insurance and 2-1-1 Board Member; Broward Behavioral Health Coalition; City of North Lauderdale; Publix Super Markets and Russo Battista Law Group were honored in recognition of the tremendous support and connections that they provide to 2-1-1 Broward and for helping the non-profit organization fulfill its mission and meet its goals.

The breakfast raised more than $55,000 for 2-1-1 Broward.

In addition to the honorees above, Broward College President J. David Armstrong Jr. was honored with the Milestone

Award in recognition of all the support that he and Broward College have provided to 2-1-1 Broward throughout the years.

The mission of 2-1-1 Broward is to provide a 24-hour comprehensive helpline and support services to individuals and families in our community seeking crisis intervention assistance. Please visit www.211-broward.org.

